The company are in Akron, Ohio, to day. The friends of Mr. Frawley will be pleased at the access attending his efforts which he has earned. He was a member of the John McCollough Parmatic Club of this city, which Mrs. Adaline Duyal Mack organized. CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

An Institution that Will Reflect Credit Upon Georgetown. The West Washington Conservatory of Music has been incorporated by Mesers William H. Dougal, F. S. Barbarin, Thomas Hyde, H. D. Cooke, Charles Becker, John D. Patien, and Je Holdsworth Gordon, who have also been elected by the stockholders to serve as a board of directors for the first year. The board of directors, at a meeting held on Saturday, elected the following meeting held on Saturday, elected the following officers: President, H. D. Cooke; vice-president, William H. Dougal; secretary, F. S. Barbarin; treasurer, J. H. Gordon. The names of these gontenens are a sufficient assurance that no exertion will be spared to make the institution one of the best and most complete in the country, and the indications are that it will be eminently popular, not only in the enterprising portion of the city in which it is located, but all over the Distret. A prospectus will be issued in a few days, and very soon thereafter the conservatory will be opened for the reception of pupils. Efforts are being made to secure the services of the best instructors in all branches of vocal and instrumental music, and the plan proposed is to have music instruction those principles which to-day are recognized as the bests of general education; and while the merits of private instruction are by no means to be denied, it is still claimed that the class system possesses certain peculiar advantages of its own, and the expenses of the lessons being divided among several members of a class, the tuition of the best instructors is brought within the reach of pupils of limited means. President, H. D. Cooke; vice-president,

Advertising in "The Republican," In these days of corruption, when almost every ssue of the paper contains the information of the letection of some persons engaged in thieving and pillering, it is no more than justice that cases on the bright side of humanity should be chron-icled. One of the most noteworthy came to the notice of the Herald last week, and proves connotice of the Herald last week, and proves conclusively that all of us are not what we are pictured up to be. On Monday Mrs. Bryan, living at 1327 G street, dropped her pocket book on Pennsylvania avenue, near Taylor & Hutry's store, containing nearly $190, and the same was picked up by a lady nemed Mrs. Jeseph Howier, living at 220 Seventh street southwest. As soon as the lady picked it up she retraced her steps and went to the office of The Repundans and institute a notice, stailing where the purse could be found if identification was established. Airs. Bryan went to the place of the purse could be found if identification was established. Airs. Bryan went to the place described the book, and was overloyed to have it handed her by the worthy and nonest woman into whe sehands it had fortunately fallen. What makes the affair the more creditable is the fact that the finder is a lady of very moderate means, and the amount would have been a small fortune to her if she had wanted to be unscruptions and keep the money. The loser, also, is not one glifted with a great deal of worldly possessions, and who, in testimony of her appreciation of Mrs. Bow'er's honesty, made her a present of $20,—Sunday Herald.

Bud Engleston's Temperance Work, Brother Bud Esglesion's tent in West Washington was crowded last night, about two thousand being present. Major J. B. Dunning and W. and being present. Major J. B. Dunning and W. H. Craiz, of this city, well known in the temperance cause, addressed the meeting: also Mr. and Mrs. J. McKendree Reliey, of Baltimore. They all made eloquent and stirring speeches. Sixty-six signatures were then taken and enlisted in they cause. Next Sunday at 3 o'cleck p. m., the corner stone will be laid for Brother Bud's tabernacle on Cardiol Hill. Eloquent and noted men in the grand temperance cause are expected and will make addresses on the occasion. Jonadabs and other temperance societies are expected to turn out in full force. The Rev. Mr. French, of Falls Church, Va., the son of the late B. B. French, will deliver a strong speech to-morrow evening at this tent. All are cordially invited to be present.

Theatre Comique. The Theatre Comique will present an unusual attraction this week in Joseph J. Dowling's combination. A four-set drama, entitled "Nobody's Claim," will be produced by a very strong company. Many thrilling situations and striking scenes occur in the play. Among the many nevelties introduced are the famous mustaing Marppa, a trained dog, a Siberian wolf, and a live cinuamou test. Mr. Bowl ng will give an exhibition of his wonderful shouting with the rifle. Among the scene effects are a flat-boat explosion and a fire scene, Incidental to the drama the following specialty stats will appear; Ward and Lynch, Mas Saide Hanson, Frank Lawten, Miss Allie Weston, Clark and Edwards, Miss Louise Bliss, Razlina and Hodges, and Bliss. Secured seats are being sold in large numbers, and there is every indication of a successful week. Claim," will be produced by a very strong com

Dashaway Reform Club.

A large and enthusiastic meeting greeted the members of this well-known temperance club, at members of this well-known temperance club, at Masonic Temple last evening, on the occasion of the reopening of their meetings, which, during the heated term, were suspended. The president of the club, Mr. C. M. Nye, stated in opening that he expected to effect permanent arrangements during the present week in reference to the place of meeting; and, if possible, sceure this hall. He also announced a meeting at his house next Wednesday for the purpose of taking into consideration the holding of a fair for the benefit of the club. In closing he introduced Mr. Nims, of Boston, who made a very interesting address, giving an account of his experience in the temperance work. Mr. Nye followed in an earnest append for signers to the pledge, in answer to which a large number signed the pledge.

National Theater.

"The White Slave," another of the numerous successful plays of Bariley Campbell, will be produced at the National Theater to-night. The heroine of this new play is a white girl who is supposed to be a negro. The slaves are sold, but this girl is rescued by her lover. The trials and vicis-situdes of the couple are brought out in a realistic manner, until they are brought to a happy clase by a lawyer who has just the right papers and knows just how to use them. It is a play full of effects, pathetic, melodramatic, and scener, that appeal to to the sympathies of the audience. It has met with immense success wherever produced, and with immense success wherever produced, and will certainly be well received here.

Washington's Caterer. The Washington caterer, Losekam, who has sup-plied the place once filled by Weicker, made £41,-000 last summer on his Saratoga hotel, the Claren-don, which Charles Leland had given up as a bad don, which Charles Leland had given up as a bad job, and has now leased, with Edward Harris, the room clerk of Willard's, the new Genessee Hotel at Buffalo with its 175 rooms. Buffalo is regarded by hotel men as the best new field uncovered, and has a good tourist business in summer and autumn. It is said here that the Brighton Beach Hotel at Coney Island made only $15,0000 last year and $25,000 the previous year, and that the earnings did not requite the hard labor of five months in the year.—From the Broadway Note Book.

Ford's Opera House, Minnie Palmer opens at Ford's Opera House this evening with her charming little comedy, My Sweetheart." Her support is excellent, and a first-class performance may be expected. The New York Mail and Express, speaking of the presentation, says: "Little Minnie Falmer's pretty face, good singing, naive manner, over-ilowing spirit, and nimble feet not only filled the stage, but won the hearts of her large audi-ence before the end of the first act."

GENTLEREN:

I have suffered for years with loss of appetite and a heavy oppressed feeling about the stomach. About April hast I commenced taking Brown's Iron Bitters, and have taken several bottles. My appetite greatly improved under the use of the first battle. It is now good, and I am relieved from the oppressed feeling. The medicine has certainly done me a great deal of good.

The Would-be Suicide Still Living With Bullet Near His Heart. One of the most curious instances of tenacity of life is furnished by the case of Mr. August Nichubr, the German tailor at $22 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, of whose attempt at suicide several weeks ago The NATIONAL REPUBLICAN made menuton. The possibility them spoken of, that the man, owing to the peculiarity of the wound, might survive, has been fally verified by his present condition, Mr. Niebuhr, having experienced considerable relief from his dropsy, on account of which he had been discharged from the he spital as incurable, while the wound caused by this dangerous operation upon him has complicity healed, the broken rib being also in fair condition. The probing of the wound con after the shooting proved the ball to have lodged close to the heart, being probably encysted in the faity degeneration usually forming in dropsical cases. It seems, however, that the unfortunate man cannot escape the "sea of troubles" in his path of life. After spending his meager savings from his trade in hospital and upon the sick bed, the near future threatens him and his wife with absolute want unless kindly-disposed people will sid him in sustaining a life that was evidently not to be terminated at his own hands. The hosts of our charitable people ought and will surely take this remarkable case in hand. One of the most curious instances of tenacity of
